THE COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

David G. Myers, Class of 1964,
Professor of Psychology, Hope College

GOD OF OUR FATHERS ..... George W. Warren
Director, David Jewett, Class of 1989

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies:
Our grateful songs before your throne arise.

Your love divine has led us in the past;
In this free land by you our lot is cast;
Oh, be our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay;
Your Word our law, your paths our chosen way.

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Make your strong arm our ever sure defense.
Your true religion in our hearts increase;
Your bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh your people on their toilsome way;
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with heav'n-born love and grace
Until at last we meet before your face.

JOYFUL, JOYFUL WE ADORE THEE

Samuel Wesley
Director, Timothy Robblee, Class of 1989
Joyful, joyful we adore thee, God of glory, Lord of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before thee, Praising thee,
their Sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, Drive the dark of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, Fill us with the light of day.
All thy works with joy surround thee, Earth and heaven reflect thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around thee, Center of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Flowery meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in thee.
Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of living, Ocean-depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, All who live in love
are thine;
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.

Academic costume is a tradition dating from the Middle Ages, when long robes and hoods were everyday attire, designed to protect against the cold and drafts of medieval university halls. It remains the regular costume at some British universities.

The many variations among academic dress are not incidental, but are rich in meaning. Each costume represents both the degree held by the wearer and the institution which awarded it. While in Europe each university has been free to adopt whatever designs it wished, a considerable degree of standardization has been achieved in the United States. Following are some of the elements of the code of academic dress.

HOODS. The hood, which is draped down the back, carries more symbolic significance than any other part of the costume. The border, extending over the shoulders to meet in a V at the front, indicates by its colors the discipline in which the degree was earned. Colors for some of the faculties are: white, arts, letters, humanities; cream, social science; dark blue, philosophy; light blue, education; scarlet, theology; pink, music; golden yellow, natural science; lemon, library science; drab, business, accounting; and sage green, physical education.

The lining of the hood, partly exposed, is in the colors of the university which granted the degree (for Whitworth, red and black). Doctor's hoods are longer than Master's hoods and have a wider border. Bachelor's degree recipients do not wear hoods.

GOWNS. Black gowns are the rule, but a few universities use other colors: Harvard crimson, Yale blue, Columbia slate gray, for example. Doctor's gowns are most readily recognizable by three horizontal velvet bars on each sleeve, either black or in the color of the discipline in which the degree was granted. Most Doctor's gowns also have velvet panels down the front. On the typical Master's gown, the sleeve has a long closed flap hanging down from the elbow. The Bachelor's gown does not have decorated panels or sleeves.

CAPS. The familiar hard-topped mortarboard, or "Oxford cap," has long been standard, but a few universities, Columbia for instance, use a soft tam instead. The tassels are usually black or the color of the discipline. Doctor's tassels can be metallic gold.

GRADUATION HONORS

Graduation honors at Whitworth college are based on the traditional Latin wording, "cum laude" (with honor), "magna cum laude" (with high honor), and "summa cum laude" (with highest honors). The criteria for these honors are based on the grade point average earned at Whitworth College, and are as follows: cum laude, 3.50 and above; magna cum laude, 3.75 and above; summa cum laude, 3.90 and above. The President's Cup is awarded to the person graduating with the highest grade point average based on four years of attendance at Whitworth College.

HONORARY DEGREES

Dr. David Myers graduated from Whitworth in 1964 with a degree in Chemistry and subsequently earned a doctorate in Psychology from the University of Iowa. He began a distinguished teaching career at Hope College in 1967. Dr. Myers has written scientific articles and chapters in two dozen books and periodicals, and has published eight books, most recently the critically acclaimed text, Psychology Through the Eyes of Faith.

Samuel Stroum moved to Seattle in 1946 following Air Force duty in World War II. He acquired a business that grew into ALMAC/Stroum Electronics, the Northwest's largest industrial electronic distributor, and in 1967 took over ownership of Schuck's Auto Supply. In 1984, Mr. Stroum turned his energies to community work and charitable causes, and has been a major supporter of education and the arts in the Northwest.

Appearance of a name on this program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it must not be regarded as conclusive. The Diploma of the college, signed and sealed by its officers, remains the official testimony of the possession of the degree.

Preliminary honors appearing in this program are based upon only seven terms of academic work. Final honors recognition will appear on transcripts and will be based upon the Whitworth academic work leading to graduation.
